

外星人在此

我们在这里在某种意义上毫不夸张的说，给我物质，我就能用它创作出一个宇宙来！——康德

在这里的一切事物，不仅仅是物体，光，空气，感知，话语。背后都有一套不被察觉的运转规律，这是一些秘密，是这个空间自己的心跳。我看见最广阔的墙面，我看到比一切水平线都要平的墙角；想象力彼此之间互相碰撞，光线也被想象力击垮了，是的，灯光是有情绪的。有声音的对话也被灯光吃掉了，谁也听不到词语的声音，但这些话语的含义，会在将来每一天，被牢牢的记起。不是所有的事物都拥有一个跟自己完全匹配的解释方式，并不是所有的文明都可以被归类。这里是一个从来没有经历过的“过去”；这里的一些刹那，黄昏或者雨滴，可以通向地球的任何一个地方。此刻一点也不重要，我们在任何事物中所看到的都是自己的选择和愿望，我们所“理解”的世界都是一小个被“理解的世界”，时间总代给我们崭新的过去，我们没有一秒钟活在“当下”。

ALIENS LANDING HERE

Give me the material, I will use it to create a universe. —Immanuel Kant

Foreword

Everything here including objects, light, the air, the sense, and words, have undetectable rules. These are secrets, as well as the heartbeats within the space. Seeing the borderless wall and corner, they are more flat than endless horizon. The imaginations crash with each other, and the light, who has emotions, is defeated by them. Nobody can hear the voice of words since all of them are eaten off by lights. But it will be recall one day up to every day, with the meaning embodied in words. Certainly it is hard for things to match with their own explanation, so do all sorts of civilizations. This is a past that we had never experienced. A twinkling, a dusk, or raindrops can get access to every place in the cosmos. Present is not important at all, we go through our choice and aspirations in all time and space. The world we understanding is one of numerous understood worlds. Time always brings new past for us, we never pass one second at present.
